(b) a bank.

3.—(1) The Bank may in accordance with the provisions of this Act—

Insurance of loans.
1/1994
S. 3.

- (a) effect contracts of insurance and issue insurance policies in respect of loans insurable under the provisions of this Act;
- (b) prior to the issue of an insurance policy in respect of a loan give an approved lender an undertaking that the Bank will issue the insurance policy if the loan is made in accordance with this Act;
- (c) charge fees (in this Act called “insurance fees”) in respect of such contracts of insurance as aforesaid;
- (d) administer any fund established by or pursuant to this Act.

1/1994
S. 3.

(2) Subject to the provisions of regulations made under this Act, where an approved loan is made by an approved lender and the insurance fee in respect thereof has been paid, the Bank shall, at the request of the approved lender, issue to the lender an insurance policy in respect of the loan or part thereof.

48/1973
S. 3.

1/1994
S. 3.

(3) Where the Bank has given an approved lender an undertaking that it will issue an insurance policy if the loan is made in accordance with this Act and the borrower subsequently requests that the loan be of an amount less than that stated in the undertaking and the insurance fee in respect of such lesser amount is paid, the Bank shall, at the request of the approved lender, issue to the approved lender an insurance policy in respect of such lesser amount if the loan has, in all other respects, been made in accordance with this Act and with the undertaking to issue an insurance policy aforesaid.

1/1994
S. 3.

1/1994
S. 3.

(4) The Bank shall not make any arrangements with respect to the re-insurance of liabilities arising under contracts of insurance effected under this Act, except with the prior approval of the Minister.

Insurable loans.
20/1971
S. 4.

4.—(1) A loan is insurable under this Act if—

(a) it was made by an approved lender to a person (in this Act called the “borrower”) in order that the borrower may—

(i) purchase or erect a house (conforming to standards of construction approved by or acceptable to the Bank) with such loan (hereinafter referred to as a “housing loan”);

(ii) purchase commercial property with such loan (hereinafter referred to as a “commercial loan”); or

(iii) purchase residential lots with such loan (hereinafter referred to as a “residential loan”); or

(iv) purchase agricultural land with such loan (hereinafter referred to as an “agricultural loan”) not exceeding five hundred acres:

Provided that the Minister may by instrument in writing specify an acreage in excess of five hundred acres where the borrower is a co-operative society registered under the Co-operative Societies Act; and

(b) it was for the aggregate of—

(i) 90 per centum of the appraised value, or any part thereof; and

(ii) the amount of the insurance fee payable in respect of the loan; and

(c) it bears interest at a rate not exceeding the prescribed rate; and

(d) it is secured by a first mortgage on the house, commercial property, residential lot or agricultural land, as the case may be, in a form acceptable to or specified by the Bank in favour of the approved

(e) it is, in the case of—

1/1994
S. 5 (c).

(i) a housing loan, for a term not less than fifteen years and not more than thirty-five years;

(ii) an agricultural loan, for a term not exceeding twenty-five years;

(iii) a commercial loan, for a term not exceeding twenty-five years;

(iv) a residential loan, for a term not less than seven years and not more than fifteen years; and

(f) it was made on such terms as to the payment of principal, interest and taxes by monthly instalments or otherwise as may be acceptable to or specified by the Bank; and

1/1994
S. 3.

(g) it was made upon such terms and conditions in addition to those specified in this subsection as may be—

(i) prescribed by regulations; or

(ii) agreed upon between the approved lender and the Bank.

1/1994
S. 3.

(1A) The terms and conditions of an insured loan shall not be changed without the approval in writing of the Bank and the Bank shall have power to alter the terms and conditions of the insurance policy as it thinks necessary consequent on any change so approved.

1/1994
S. 5 (d).

(2) With the approval of the Bank, borrower's charges accruing during the term of an insured loan may be added to the principal thereof.

1/1994
S. 3.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this section a loan referred to in subsection (1) may be for an amount less than the amount specified therein or for a period shorter than the period specified therein if a loan for such lesser amount or for such shorter period, as the case may be, is requested in writing by the borrower or is made in such other circumstances as may be prescribed.

48/1973
S. 4 (c).

(4) The Minister may from time to time prescribe variations in respect of the percentages or the amount specified in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) or in section 5.

5.—(1) An insurance fee of  $2\frac{1}{2}$  per centum or such other prescribed percentage of the amount of any loan to be insured under this Act shall be paid by the lender to the Bank but may be charged to the borrower and collected by the lender from the borrower at such times and in such manner as may be agreed between the borrower and the lender; and different rates may be charged for different categories of loans.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the insurance fee shall be calculated on the amount advanced to the borrower without taking into account the insurance fee component of the loan.

Termination of policy.

6.—(1) An insurance policy issued under this Act in respect of a loan ceases to be in force if the loan is transferred to a person other than—

- (a) an approved lender;
- (b) the Bank; or
- (c) such other person as the Bank, subject to such conditions as it thinks fit, may approve.

S. 3.

1/1994
S. 3.

1/1994
S. 3.

(2) The Bank may by not less than fifteen days' notice to an approved lender terminate an insurance policy issued under this Act if the approved lender fails to comply with the provisions of this Act or with any directions of the Bank pursuant to section 7 or with any regulations made hereunder and thereupon the Bank shall be discharged from all its obligations in respect of the insurance policy. 1/1994

S. 3.

(3) The Bank may administer an insured loan pursuant to an agreement made with the holder thereof. 1/1994
S. 3.

(4) Nothing in subsection (1) shall be construed as terminating an insurance policy by reason only that the Minister revokes his approval of any lender as an approved lender; and, in relation to any insured loan being administered by that lender at the time of such revocation, the provisions of this Act and of the Regulations made thereunder shall continue to apply as if such lender as aforesaid continued to be an approved lender.

7.—(1) Where—

Insurance
settlement.

(a) a borrower defaults in the payment of principal or interest or in the performance or observance of any covenant expressed in any mortgage securing an insured loan; and

(b) because of such default an approved lender has the power to sell the mortgaged property, the approved lender shall give notice to the Bank of such default and if the default continues for the period specified in the insurance policy shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (7), exercise the power of sale aforesaid in accordance with this section. 1/1994
S. 3.

(2) The exercise of the power of sale aforesaid shall be subject to the condition that the sale shall be by public auction with a reserve price not less than the settlement value of the property:

Provided that the approved lender may at any time sell by private treaty prior to giving notice to the Bank under 1/1994 subsection (4) but no such sale shall be made at a price less than the reserve price except with the consent of the Bank which, if it consents to the sale, shall pay to the approved lender out of the Mortgage Insurance Fund the difference between the price obtained on such sale as aforesaid and the settlement value of the property.

1/1994
S. 3.

(3) If the reserve price is obtained by the approved lender pursuant to subsection (2) or if the approved lender sells at a price less than the reserve price without the consent of the Bank, the Bank shall thereby be discharged from all its obligations in respect of the insured loan.

1/1994
S. 3.

(4) If in any case the approved lender does not obtain the reserve price pursuant to subsection (2) the approved lender shall forthwith notify the Bank and the Bank shall thereupon, at its option subject to subsection (5), either—

1/1994
S. 3.

(a) authorize the approved lender to sell the property at the best price reasonably obtainable (whether by public auction or otherwise) and, if upon sale such price is less than the settlement value of the property, the Bank shall pay to the approved lender the difference between such price as aforesaid and the settlement value of the property; or

1/1994
S. 3.

(b) require the approved lender to transfer to the Bank or its nominee all rights to and in respect of the insured loan and all collateral or other securities therefor on payment of the settlement value of the property by the Bank to the approved lender; or

1/1994
S. 3.

(c) require the approved lender to sell the mortgaged property to the Bank or its nominee at a price equivalent to the settlement value of the property; or

1/1994
S. 3.

(d) direct the approved lender—

1/1994
S. 3.

(i) to acquire title to the mortgaged property

(whether by proceedings for foreclosure or otherwise) clear of all encumbrances except as prescribed by regulations; and

- (ii) to convey such title as aforesaid within the prescribed time to the Bank or to a nominee of the Bank (with or without vacant possession of the property as the Bank may require) on payment of the settlement value of the property by the Bank to the approved lender. 1/1994
S. 3.

(5) The Bank may in any insurance policy undertake to restrict the option referred to in subsection (4) to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) only of subsection (4). 1/1994
S. 3.

(6) Any amount payable by the Bank pursuant to subsection (4) shall be paid out of the Mortgage Insurance Fund. 1/1994
S. 3.

(7) The Bank may agree with the approved lender to postpone the exercise of the power of sale on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon. 1/1994
S. 3.

(8) For the purpose of this section—

“relevant date” means—

- (a) in relation to a sale pursuant to subsection (2), the date of such sale; and
- (b) in relation to a sale, transfer or conveyance pursuant to subsection (4), the date of such sale, transfer or conveyance, as the case may be;

“the settlement value of the property” means the aggregate of the following—

- (a) the principal owing on the mortgage at the relevant date;
- (b) borrower’s charges paid before the relevant date;

(c) interest at the mortgage interest rate on each amount specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this definition—

(i) for the period for which interest thereon was due or accrued and unpaid at the relevant date; or

(ii) for a period of twelve months or such longer period as may from time to time be prescribed, whichever is the shorter period; and

(d) all costs and expenses reasonably and properly incurred and either agreed between the approved lender and the Bank or, in default of agreement, as may be taxed by the Registrar of the Supreme Court,

1/1994
S. 3.

and in calculating the amount payable, amounts received for the credit of the mortgage account shall be appropriated at the date of the receipt thereof first to interest then owing on the mortgage account, secondly to borrower's charges and thirdly, to the principal owing on the mortgage account.

1/1994
S. 3.

(9) Except where notice is given to the Bank pursuant to subsection (1) nothing in this section shall prevent an approved lender from exercising, without reference to the Bank, a power of sale which has arisen in relation to an insured loan but no claim in respect of the insurance may be made under this Act unless such notice is given.

insurance
settlement.
1/1994
S. 3.

8. Notwithstanding anything in section 7, where in any particular case the Bank is of opinion that the procedure under that section would unduly increase the loss in respect of any insured loan, the Bank may agree with the holder of the loan to pay to him out of the Mortgage Insurance Fund, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, such amount as may be agreed upon in lieu of settlement under section 7.

9.—(1) The Bank shall establish a fund to be known as the “Mortgage Insurance Fund” into which shall be paid four-fifths of all insurance fees received by the Bank under this Act other than fees received pursuant to section 11.

Mortgage
Insurance Fund.
1/1994
S. 3.

(2) The Bank may invest any part of the Mortgage Insurance Fund in securities of or guaranteed by the Government of Jamaica or such other classes of securities as may from time to time be approved by the Minister.

1/1994
S. 3.

(3) Property acquired by the Bank under this Act and investments made out of the Mortgage Insurance Fund under subsection (2) shall be assets of that Fund.

1/1994
S. 3.

(4) Save as otherwise provided in section 14, insurance fees paid into the Mortgage Insurance Fund and the return on investments and assets of the Mortgage Insurance Fund shall be deemed not to be income of the Bank.

1/1994
S. 3.

(5) All payments required to be made by the Bank under section 7 or section 8 or in the upkeep of any property or mortgage acquired pursuant to section 7 or section 8 or in respect of any debentures issued under section 10 shall be paid out of the Mortgage Insurance Fund.

1/1994
S. 3.

10.—(1) Where the Bank is required to make any payment out of the Mortgage Insurance Fund pursuant to section 7 or section 8 in settlement of an insured loan, the Bank in its discretion may, in lieu of the portion of such payment representing the principal of the insured loan, issue to the person holding or administering the insured loan debentures (payable out of and charged on the Mortgage Insurance Fund) up to a nominal value equivalent to the principal of the insured loan outstanding at the date on which such payment as aforesaid is required to be made.

(2) No debentures shall be issued pursuant to subsection (1) unless such debentures—

- (a) bear interest at the rate of interest at which the insured loan was made; and
- (b) are redeemable to the Bank not later than the date of expiration of the term of the insured loan; and
- (c) are guaranteed by the Minister.

1/1994
S. 3.

(3) Where the Minister is satisfied that there has been default in the repayment of principal moneys or interest guaranteed under the provisions of this section, he shall direct the repayment out of the Consolidated Fund of the amount in respect of which there has been such default.

(4) Any sums required by the Minister for the purpose of subsection (3) shall be charged on and issued out of the Consolidated Fund.

loans.
1/1994
S. 3.

11.—(1) The Accountant-General shall transfer and pay to the Bank all assets and moneys held by him for the purposes of any mortgage insurance reserve fund established in accordance with guarantee arrangements made pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 49 of the Housing Act, and accordingly, all fees or premiums payable to the Government in respect of any such guarantee arrangements shall, after the commencement of this Act, be paid to the Bank.

1/1994
S. 3.

1/1994
S. 3.

(2) The Bank shall, with the assets, moneys, fees or premiums received by it in accordance with subsection (1), establish and administer a Fund to be known as the "Mortgage (Government Guaranteed Loans) Insurance Reserve Fund" for the purposes of the housing schemes in respect of which such amounts and fees were paid.

(3) The Bank may invest any part of the Mortgage (Government Guaranteed Loans) Insurance Reserve Fund in securities of or guaranteed by the Government of Jamaica or in such other classes of securities as may from time to time be approved by the Minister. 1/1994
S. 3.

(4) Save as otherwise provided in section 14, the fees or premiums paid into the Mortgage (Government Guaranteed Loans) Insurance Reserve Fund and the return on investments and assets of the Fund shall be deemed not to be income of the Bank. 1/1994
S. 3.

12. From and after the 15th June, 1960, any loan in respect of any portion of which pursuant to an arrangement under paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 49 of the Housing Act, Government had undertaken to issue a guarantee, may, with the consent of the person to whom such undertaking was given, in lieu of such guarantee, be insured by the Bank. Insurance in lieu of Government guarantee.

1/1994
S. 3.

13. The aggregate amount of all loans in respect of which insurance policies have been issued under this Act shall not exceed the sum of five hundred million dollars or such other sum as the Minister may from time to time, by order, subject to negative resolution of the House of Representatives, prescribe.
